Building the Community

Emily Pfotenhauer
Digital Strategist and Grants Manager
WiLS (Wisconsin Library Services)
emily@wils.org
CCDC: Goals

- Provide hands-on learning opportunities for graduate students
- Help small libraries, archives and historical societies gain control of digital assets
  → NDSA Level 1
- Build statewide community of practice around digital stewardship
CCDC: Partners & models

● Partners
  ○ UW-Madison iSchool
  ○ UW-Milwaukee SOIS
  ○ Training consultant - Amy Rudersdorf, AVP

● Models
  ○ NDSR
  ○ Digital POWRR
CCDC: Mentors

- Kristin Briney, UW-Milwaukee Libraries
- Adam Brisk, University of Minnesota-Duluth
- Amy Cooper Cary, Marquette University
- Erin Dix, Lawrence University
- Stacey Erdman, Beloit College
- Jesse Henderson, University of Wisconsin Digital Collections Center
- Cat Phan, UW-Madison Archives
- Peter Shrake, Circus World Museum
- Heather Stecklein, UW-Stout Archives
- Scott Prater, UW-Madison Libraries
- Sarah Titus, St. Norbert College
- Hannah Wang, Wisconsin Historical Society
CCDC: Projects

- 120 or 150 hours work
- On site and remote
- Virtual communication and project management tools
- Academic credit + summer stipend for students
- Site visits and mentor check-ins
- Virtual capstone event
- Digital preservation policies and workflows
Education & Advocacy

- Raise baseline understanding of digital preservation concepts
- Build shared vocabulary/common language
- Focus on practical actions
- Understand local priorities and concerns

Sticky notes from immersion workshop:
“Digital Preservation is not ‘one and done.’
It must be monitored and maintained forever.”
“There is no closure!”
Success Stories
Thank you!

Emily Pfotenhauer

emily@wils.org